TORN & FRAYED are celebrated for their deep dives into the enormous Stones catalog, delivering their "folkeD up" acoustic interpretations of Jagger-Richards classics, including audience favorites, deep album cuts and a variety of obscure Stones-related gems. Accompanying TORN & FRAYED at Lost Boy Creations on March 12th will be gifted guitar maestro Larry Baeder, a resident of Key West.

"Got Livestream If You Want It!"

For those who can't make it to Key West, the entire concert will be live-streamed to Facebook, with a multi-camera shoot produced and directed by Greg Rue of Filmic Live Stream Productions. Additionally, a video recording of the concert will be posted to YouTube following the live event.

Dennis McJagger (aka "Frayed") was ecstatic upon hearing the news that the concert in Key West was confirmed: "That's FANTASTIC!!! I'm so psyched!!! I've been shoveling snow and dealing with frozen gutters here in New Jersey for the past two weeks!" Duo partner "Chicago" Mike Beck (aka "Torn") added: "This is going to be an unforgettable evening of music and revelry!" Lost Boy Creations' founder Matt Atkinson was hugely excited to welcome the duo -- His very first concert was the Rolling Stones at Rentschler Field in Hartford, Connecticut in 2005.

Light refreshments will be served and people are encouraged to bring their own liquid libations. Alcohol will NOT be served, but folks are welcome to bring their own. Admission is free and people of all ages are welcome.

TORN & FRAYED made their concert debut at the 2017 ÉCU Film Festival in Paris, France, and have performed in The Netherlands, Italy, Canada and at venues and festivals across the USA.
